Interviewer Note (Record your attempts to contact the former student: make a note of dates and times of day):
INTERVIEWER INSTRUCTIONS
All questions are phrased as though the interviewer were talking directly to the former student(s). However, if the interviewer must ask questions about the former student to a parent/ guardian, rephrase the question as appropriate. "Stress that the parent / guardian's response should reflect what the parent / guardian thinks former student's response would be.
Please don't read the answer choices out loud. Ask the question and use your judgment to pick the best category for the answer. You can ask for clarification if you have enough information.	don't
If you, as the Interviewer, reach someone, introduce yourself and read and/or paraphrase the following script:
"Hello my name isand I'm a(title) at(school) We're calling to find out how our students that left school last year are doing now. We want to out what helps our students be successful after high school. The interview will take around 15 minutes, and all of the information is confidential and private. We do share your personal information. You can skip any question that you don't want to answer. Doing this interview will not affect any of your benefits, including SSI."	o not
1. Would you (or your son/daughter) be willing to give us your thoughts about how things are going for you now?
Yes (agreed to be interviewed)
<ul> <li>No (contacted, but declined interview)</li> </ul>
Could not contact (please try at least three times, at different times/days)
