

What did former students say in 2022?

“I thought I knew what was best for me but turns out I was wrong.” (quote from a student who dropped out)

“After high school, you just have to get a job and figure this life thing out.”

“Things are going great with school and work, especially since being in touch with Disability Coordinator.” (student earning a diesel mechanic certification)

“The people you are around – if you choose good friends, you will be successful. School was good, and the teachers were supportive.”

“OVR helped me to register to vote and get my driver’s license.”

“The life skills class and CWTP (Community Work Transition Program). Knowing what to do in certain situations. The exposure and interactions while at job sites has helped my confidence to succeed.”

Visit kypso.org for more information!

About KYP SO:

The Kentucky Post School Outcomes Center (KYP SO) develops and oversees the YOYO interview. Help KYP SO improve post-school outcomes for students leaving high school and transitioning to adult life.

One year after you leave high school, be ready to answer the call!

Contact KYP SO at information@kypso.org